

ROB ROBSON

Best-selling Financial Fitness Program in a Super App is helping thousands of people across the world learn timeless principles to prosper in any economy.

Rob Robson is an internationally renowned business and success mentor. Rob's personal story of going from a troubled youth to a successful leader & entrepreneur at 21 years old has inspired millions of people around the globe.

As a Policy Council member of The Life Platform, his passion and purpose are to decentralize power and profits through leading the consumer rebellion.

Rob Robson, co-founder, and CEO, of Super App, coaches clients on the process of getting out of debt and staying out of debt.

Rob promises instant access to life-changing messages and all the materials used by masters and millionaires and instructional videos highlighting principles of sound Financial Literacy.